VERY WELL PRESENTED.

"Madame Sherry" at Barre Opera House Saturday Evening.

For excellence of presentation, "Madame Sherry," seen at the Barre opera house Saturday night, was one of the finest attractions of the year. The singing, the dancing and the mannerisms of the cast of twenty persons, as well as their personal appearance, placed them above the usual run, and their efforts to draw out a laugh were so persuasive that it was a very somber person, indeed, who wasn't amused at some time or other. Not so much could be said of the piece itself; perhaps it is sufficient to say that "Madame Sherry" is a French vaudeville.

Of the entertainers, petite and dainty Mairé Flynn as Yvonne Sherry, a girl just out of the convent and niece of Theophilus, the man who was surprised at everything, although he didn't show it, captivated the audience with her singing and dancing and her girlish ways. She was given a rousing curtain call, to which she responded with a most naive bow. Andrey Maple, Anna Boyd and Virginia Foltz in the other leading roles were likewise very good. Halton Mostyn as Theophilus provoked a laugh any time, in any rig. Frank Johnson had a splendid voice. Mortimer H. Weldon furnished excellent support for Miss Flynn. In Wilmer Bentley was seen one of the most agile dancers, while his French mimicry was very fine. The piece itself is a combination of love making, both real and feigned. "Madame Sherry" will probably be the last of the larger attractions of the year. There was a fair-sized audience in attendance. Four special cars were waiting to take the Montpelier people home.

GODDARD DEFEATED.

Lost to People's Academy at Morrisville, 7 to 6.

Morrisville, May 15.—People's academy defeated Goddard seminary here Saturday afternoon, 7 to 6. The game was hotly contested, and was marked by brilliant fielding. Ward pitched excellent ball for P. A., keeping the hits scattered, and was backed by excellent support. Williams of Goddard was effective, except in the third inning. The fielding honors were equally divided. Features were catches by Priest of Goddard and Mould of P. A. The score: Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—R H E P. A. 0 0 5 0 0 2 0 0 x—7 5 2 Goddard . . . 0 0 4 0 1 0 1 0 0—6 10 3 Batteries, Ward and Powers, Williams and Lewis; umpire, Isham.
